

TRAINING FOR FAMILIES, YOUTH AND PROVIDERS

“What’s After High School?” - Training on Transition

“What’s After High School?” is a broad overview of the transition to adult life for young adults with disabilities and special needs and includes the following topics:

- planning for the future
- the role of schools
- long-term supports
- vocational resources
- moving into adult health care
- supported decision making
- basics of self-determination

This training is ideal for families who have children ages 14 - 21 and providers and school staff who work with young adults with special needs. Youth are welcome to attend.

When: October 24, 5:30pm – 8:00pm (check-in and dinner start at 5:00)

Where: The Aging and Disability Resource Center @ the Community Center,
916 N 14th Ave, Sturgeon Bay, WI 54235

Cost: The training is free to participants. A light meal and a resource binder will be provided.

Register: Contact the Northeast Regional Center for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs at 877-568-5205 or email infonerc@chw.org

* Please register by Oct. 19 to guarantee your meal and binder! ****

This training is co-sponsored by Family Voices of Wisconsin, the ADRC of Door County, Door County Partnership for Children and Families & the Northeast Regional Center for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs.

