

TRAINING FOR FAMILIES, YOUTH AND PROVIDERS

“What’s After High School?” - Training on Transition

“What’s After High School?” is a broad overview of the transition to adult life for young adults with disabilities and special needs and includes the following topics:

- planning for the future
- the role of schools
- long-term supports
- vocational resources
- moving into adult health care
- supported decision making
- basics of self-determination

This training is ideal for families who have children ages 14 - 21 and providers and school staff who work with young adults with special needs. Youth are welcome to attend.

When: Thursday, November 8, 5:30pm – 8:00pm (check-in and dinner start at 5:00)

Where: Watertown High School, 825 Endeavour Dr., Watertown, WI 53098 (Media Center)

Cost: The training is free to participants. A light meal and a resource binder will be provided.

Register: Contact the Southeast Regional Center for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs at (800) 234-KIDS(5437) or email bholman@chw.org

** Please register by November 2 to guarantee your meal and binder! ****

This training is co-sponsored by Family Voices of Wisconsin, the Southeast Regional Center for Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs and Watertown School District.

